

Investor Relations policy

Wilson's ambition is to supply investors, the capital market and other surroundings simultaneously with relevant and timely information in order to contribute to a correct valuation of the company, in order to reduce investor risk.

Such information will be provided through press releases, and presentations of the company's quarterly and annual reports primarily in Oslo and Bergen. This reporting will be done in accordance with the calendar which is published under the financial calendar.

In addition to this, information will be provided through press releases and general investor presentations which will also be published on the company's website. In addition, the company maintains contact with investors and analysts.

Two weeks before publishing the quarterly results, the company enters a "quiet period", where contact with external analysts, investors and journalists is limited to a minimum.

Investor Relations policy

Wilson has the objective of providing investors, the capital market and other relations concurrently with relevant and timely information in order to contribute to a fair value estimation of the company and to reduce investor risks.

Such information shall be provided regularly according to the financial calendar via the messaging system at Oslo Børs, via the Wilson web pages, as well as via presentations of the company's quarterly and annual reports, which shall primarily take place in Bergen and Oslo.

Interim information may be published as relevant according to requirements of the Oslo Børs and as deemed relevant by the Wilson management via the messaging system at Oslo Børs, via the Wilson web pages, as well as via general investor presentations. In addition the company maintains contact with investors, analysts and financial publications as requested.

Two weeks before publishing the quarterly results the company enters into a "closed period" where contact with analysts, investors and journalists is kept to a minimum.